FOR THE DEAF.

Various Wasys of Helping the Hear

Dr. C. H. Thomas of Philadelphia has been making a study of the various new devices for helping the deaf to hear. All of them, he says, depend for their action upon the principle, of acoustics that solids vibrate in unison with the sound waves produced in the with the sound waves produced in the air near them. In these instruments the vibrations are of sufficient force to be andible when conveyed to the internal "ear through the medium of the teeth and cranial bones, independently of the ordinary channel of hearing. He says that a simple and excellent instrument for the purpose "consists simply of a rod of hard wood about two feet long and a quarter of an inch two feet long and a quarter of an inch thick, one end of which is placed against the teeth of the speaker, the other resting against or between the teeth of the person hard of he ring. If the speaker articulates in a natural tone of voice, the vocal vibrations will be transmitted in great volume through the teeth and thence to the ears of the deaf person. It will also convey the voice distinctly when placed against the forehead or other portions of the skull of the hearer. It will also convey perfectly audible speech of one to that of the other, or such sounds may that of the other, or such sounds may be conveyed by simply bringing the heads themselves in contact. Again, instead of the speaker holding it against his teeth, he may place it against the upper part of his chest, when, upon using his voice, the sound will be conveyed as before, of course, independently of the teeth of either person."

What Sickened Bismarck.

Prince Bismarck's present illness is, by a Berlin paper, attributed to a strange cause. One of the Prince's favorite pastimes has, for several years, been to attract wild boars to his park at Varzin by feeding them with all sorts of delicacies. All the boars for miles around accordingly migrated to Varzin. One of the Prince's neighbors, an enthusiastic hunter, could not stand this sort of thing, and made repeated forays on the Prince's domain, where, in a few days, he killed twenty-five boars, always eluding the grasp of the game-keepers. Bismarck flew into a violent rage at this intelligence and became seriously ill. It is said that he meditates building a line of forts around

A Mountain Bailroad.

The Railroad to the crater of Vesuvius is now completed. The depot is situated at a height of 810 metres, or situated at a height of $10 metres, or 210 metres above the Observatory. A restaurant and cafe capable of accommodating 100 people is attached to the depot. The angle of inclination of this railroad attains at various points 40, 50 and 63 degrees. There are two passenger cars, the Vesuvins and the Eura, accommodating 12 persons each. The system adopted in the construction, is of American inventios, and is known as "the prismatic system."

Singular Proceeding in a Church

While Paster Woolpert was out of his pulpit, at Fort Wayne, Ind., Class Leader Jackson entered it, unfolded a manuscript, and read a formal charge of immorality against the minister. The congregation frequently interrupted, but Jackson persisted until they had heard all he had written.

INTERESTING EXPERI-MENTS.

-A Prolific Source of Dyspepsis

From the New York Tribune.

A series of highly interesting experiments with dogs has lately been made by Prof. Most, and in the Science riments with dogs has lately been made by Prof. Mott, and in the Scientific American of Feb. 7-a detailed account is given. The disclosures are so unpleasant and startling, coming home, as they do, to every one, that we believe that they should be given the greatest publicity. The effort Dr. Mott is making to purify our articles of kitchen use should receive the support of every thinking man and woman. There has been too much indifference on this subject—an indifference that has resulted in Americans earning the title of "a race of dyspeptics." Poison, year after year, is introduced into the stomach with a criminal disregard to consequences that is appaling. If every purveyor of domastic supplies will carefully consider the result of "Dr. Mott's experiments, as detailed in the Scientific American, one of the greatest, if not the greatest, of these avils will be corrected.

Dr. Mott says: "The introduction of alum if flour, for varjous purposea, has been a trick of the baker for the and by them could scarcely be read without a blush. What agong it must give them to liste to some portions of the heartifel service of the Episcopal church! And some of Shakespaare's highest flights how perfectly dreadful! Fancy one of them residing this, the thrilling expression of Lady Macbeth's inflexible deformation.

"I have given suck, and know how tenter it to love the bace that with me; I would, while it was smiling my face, five plücked my nippiremais bendens girfis, 'and fisches, 'conting it to love the bace that miltime; I would, while it was smiling my face, five plücked my nippiremais bendens girfis,' and fisches girfis,' and girfis and liding myon. their them indecency to draw a ludicrous picture of its venerable inmates stipping and sliding myon. their them is the indecency to draw a ludicrous picture of its venerable inmates stipping and sliding myon. their them is the control of the company of the commissioners of the hands of the nature of the commissioners of the hands of the nature of the commissioners of the control of the control of the commissioners of the control of the commissioners of the control of the contr

"Dog No. 1—Breed of dog, coach. Age, I year. Health, perfect. Food, bread and crackers. Color, spotted black and white. Weight, 35 pounds. "To this dog, on the merning of the 9th of September, was given eight biscuits at 8.10 o'clock. The biscuit were made by myself as follows: One quart sifted flour, 20 teaspoons alum baking powder, 2 cups water, one tablespoonful butter, 23 biscuits made, weighing 27 ounces; time of baking, 20 misutes.

ated blood. The fibrine was imperstrate; that the salts left in the biscuit when a cream of tartar baking powder is used are perfectly harmless, but when an atum baking powder is used very dangerous, for in every case where dogs were fed on biscuits made with such powders the dogs were made very sick, causing them to vomit profusely, lose all energy, and show weakness in their limbs."

It is a clear and triumphant corroboration of the assertions of the Royal Baking Powder Company, and entitles them to the gratitude and support of the community they are endeavoring to protect. As they claim, and Dr. Mott has shown, bread made of alum is totally unfit for human or animal food. This true, in the bread of domestic consumption there may not be so large a proportion of baking powders as was in the bread used by Dr. Mott, and that accounts for the fact that the symptoms in the reader are not so well defined as they were in the experiments in question. How many there are of our immediate friends suffering from this evil, seintific investigation will alone reveal; but many a lingering and suffering invalid, with no defined idea of his trouble, can easily trace it to its source by stopping the use of alum invalid, with no defined idea of his trouble, can easily trace it to its source by stopping the use of alum powders, substituting somelbrand like the Royal Baking Powder, whose manufacturers have a competent chemist in their exclusive employ, who rigidly analyzes every ingredient before its incorporation into their powder. The old cry of "honesty being the best policy" may be warn threadbare, but its truth will hold forever, and while adulterations and short weights abound, it is a pleasure to see at least one in the trade strenuously endeavoring to give full weights and pure goods.

The Sea Serpent Seen Again.

Capt. Chase of Portland, Maine, is Capt. Chase of Portland, Maine, is regarded as ordinarily a truthful man. He commands the brig Ysidora Riorida, and writes from Matanzas that he has seen a soa serpent. "It was a few minutes before noon," he says, "when I saw about, 200 yards ahead of us, the monster rear his head and part of his body, about 50 feet in all—its head being about 16 feet out of water, at an angle of about 15 degrees water, at an angle of about 15 degrees—and suddenly dip it again, which operation it repeated three times ere I lost sight of it. Judging from the portion which I saw, the animal could not have been less than 100 feet long, and about the size of a molasses hogshead in the middle. Its kend and jawa had a flat annare appearance, and by had a flat, square appearance, and by no means an inviting look for a very near approach?

Muscular Editors.

It must be a muscular crowd of "literateurs" who do the heavy work on the Cinciansti, Enquerer. A few weeks ago an alleged operatic manager and friend went to the office of that paper for "satisfaction," and got it. Last Sunday night one Dan Mccarthy, described as a very bad man called to clean out the establishment and was promptly thrown down stairs. called to clean out the establishment and was promptly thrown down stairs. A second visit on the part of Mr. Mccarthy resulted in that gentleman's discomfiture and lodged in the station-bouse. Cincipnati thumpers do not make much headway in bruising up that concern.

A failroad train met with what might have been called a shipwreck, on the shore of Lake Erie. A atorm raised the water over the tracks and put out the fire in the locomotive; a heavy sea dashed against the cars, breaking their sides, and a floating box car carried away the cab of the engine by a collision; and, finally, the passengers were taken to the shore on a raft made of the and boards.

A Girl not to be Trifled With

Molissa Ann Woodbury was ready to go riding with a young man at Winchester, Ind., and sat waiting at the window at the appointed time. But, instead of keeping his engagement, the faithless fellow rode boldly past with another girl. lated blood. The fibrine was imperfectly digested, and the experiments were very important, as showing that alone can cheek the digestion of so easily digested a substance as fibrine. They indicate therefore, how dangerous it is to introduce these two salts into our stomachs, if we do not wish to excite indigestion and dyspepsis.

Further experiments showed that the digestive power of the gastric, juice is entirely destroyed by alum, as larned in the population in round numbers at the population in round numbers, at entirely destroyed by alum, as larned white of an egg.

Dr. Mott then determined to learn whether alumina could be found in the various organs of the body if a deg was fed with hydrate of alumina. He found a considerable quantity of the stuff in the blood, liver, kidneys, and hear.

The Doctor goes on to describe the different symptoms exhibited by these dogs as they passed through almost every phase of animal agony until they were left in a complete state of physical prostration. To those especially interested in the details of this subject the article in the Scientific American supplement will give most complete information, and we will as pare the sympathetic reader the account of the sufferings of these dumb brutes.

Dr. Mott's conclusions after making these voluments are of rital interests.

Pr. Mott's conclusions after making these voluments are of rital interests. brutes.

Dr. Mott's conclusions after making these experiments, are of vital interest to every one who makes or cats bread, and therefore concern all.

"These experiments" said he recently, while speaking before the American Chemical Society, "clearly demonstrate; that the salts left in the biscuit when a cream of tartar baking powder is used are perfectly harmless, but 000,000, and there is amail doubt that 000,000, and there is small doubt that this will prove to be correct. "What kind of an animal is that?" asked a Boston lady, as she stepped into the Truckee Market yesterday and pointed to the carcass of a calf locked up. that was hanging on the wall. "That," replied the man in the red shirt, "is a calf." "Oh, I see," said the lady, "it's not dressed." "Yes, it's dressed," replied the butcher, "but dressed with the skin on." "Ah, now I understand," said the Boston student of our cus-toms, "you cut up and sell meat with the skin on in this country." "Yes," said he of the red shirt, "the skin keeps the juice of the meat from evap-orating." The lady made a note of this curious fact of Nevada life, and it will doubtless serve to enliven a let-ter to her friends at home.

Carrying a Cocked Revolver.

An Austin young man called upon a young lady one evening this week, and anticipating a meeting with a hated rival put a pistol in his pocket. As he nesred her house he cocked the pistol so that he might lose no time in shooting should the expected encounter take place. He did not meet his rival, however, and he spent the evening at the house of his beloved without any interruption. He forgot all about his pistol and it remained loaded and cocked in his pocket. The next day the young man was standing in an Austin store, when an explosion took place in his rear, and a bullet from his pistol tore a hole in his trousers, and harmlessly struck the floor. The young man was not tol so that he m ght lose no time the floor. The young man was not injured, but he will not be likely to carry a cocked revolver in his pocket

DeYOUNG SHOT.

A Son of Mayor Kalloch Kills Charles deYoung.

THE VICTIM SHOT DOWN WITHOUT A WORD OF WARNING.

Four Shots Fired but Only One Taking Effect-The Assassin Arrested and in Prison.

DeYoung Did Not Shoot-How His Brother Received the News-What Is Supposed to Have Caus The Shooting.

[Special to the GAZETTE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23 .: - Just before eight o'clock this evening Chas. deYoung entered the business office of the Chronicle on the ground floor, corner of Kearney and Bush streets and stood talking with some gentlemen, leaning sgainst the counter.
Directly the door opened and I. M.
Kallock entered. Drawing a pistol, and without, as far as can be learned speaking a word, began firing at de Young. The latter ran through the gate of the counter to the deak inside Kalloch firing at him as he ran. Or reaching the deak, de Young turned to face his opponent with a pistol in his hand, when Kalloch, leaning over the counter, fired again, the ball striking de Young in the mouth. Kalloch then started for the door. de Young raised his pistol as if to fire, but apparently his strength failed him, for the pistol was not discharged, and sinking backwards, he fell to the floor. Bystanders ran to his assistance, but a ball had evidently pierced the base of the brain, and in a few moments he expired. As Kalloch ran out of the door, he was seized by citizens, and at the same moment an officer came up, took him into custody, and conducted him to the city prison, where he was

THE EXCITEMENT IN THE CITY.

News of the murder flew through the city like wild-fire and in a few moments the streets in the vicinity of the Chronicle office were crowded with people cager to learn the particulars of the affair. Policemen were at once stationed at the doors of the office, to keep out the inquisitive crowd, and only a few personal friends and reporters were admitted in the rear

BEHAVIOR OF C. DEYOUNG'S BROTHER.

M. H. deYoung, brother of the deeased, reclined on a lounge, surrounded by friends, evidently overcome by the tragedy, but with dry eyes and calm though strained voice. He was not present at the time of the shooting, moments later than Charles.

The deceased lay on his back the floor, face and breast dabbled in blood, eyes closed, and his face bearing the calm expression noticeable in the cases of those dying from gunshet rounds. Only one wound was found on his person, although at least four shots were fired by Kalloch, two having pierced the glass door and partition of the office, the third lodged in

The loon, or great American diver, is a peculiar bird. It frequents inland waters, and is usually a solitary bird. Its cry, heard over the water, in the stillness of a summer night in the woods

MISCELLANEOUS.

YOUNG MEN

There are many at the suc of thirty and sixty who are troubled wift too frequent evacuations of the biadeer, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a wanner the patient cannot account for. On examining the British and some small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin mikitah han, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

Office Hours-10 to 4 and 8 to 8. Sundays from 10 to 11 a. x. Consultation Free. Thorough examination and advice $3. P. S. For private diseases of short standing a full course of medicines sufficient for a cure, with necessary instructions, will be sent to any address on receipt of Ten Dollars.
